Two Guys Make Chinese

Gluten-Free

General Tso's Chicken – We're not exactly sure what "gluten-free" means.

About Us

Two Guys Make Chinese is an authentic, Asian cuisine prepared by Quinnipiac students for Quinnipiac students.

After eating at Quinnipiac's "finer" dining facilities and local Chinese eateries (we're calling you out, Gold Star of Hamden), we decided it was time to provide a real Mandarin experience.

By using only ingredients of the highest quality, we can guarantee that you might like our food.

"Immersed in its culture, this is far-and-away the best Chinese food I've had the pleasure of eating." – Gordon Ramsey*

*-we were on opposite ends of a loud room, but we're halfway sure that this isn't even close to what he said.

Low-Calorie

Low Calorie Chicken – The same General Tso's chicken and rice, just served with less of it for the same price.

05

Very Low Calorie Chicken – Screw the rice. Just chicken, but not very much of it. You'll probably be hungry later.

05

Protein Rich

General Tso's Chicken – Double the chicken for double the protein. And double the price.

03
